

managerial responsibility for the Infection Control Department/nurses. That role is now advisory and the Director of Nursing holds managerial responsibility. I would estimate that this structural change was initiated in or around mid 2008;

I confirm that the content of this statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Signature:

A solid black rectangular box redacting the signature.

Date:

23.09.10